

2017 MOOT COURT

SAVE THE DATES!!!!

The E. Earle Zehmer National Moot Court Competition will be held at the Orlando World Center Marriott from August 5th - 7th, 2017 in Orlando, Florida.

This competition affords students the opportunity to argue in the preliminary and quarterfinal rounds before sitting workers' compensation judiciary from across the country. The semi-final rounds are judged by retired Judges of Compensation Claims with the final round argued before presiding judges from the First District Court of Appeal of the State of Florida. Most competition expenses are generously covered by the Workers' Compensation Institute, including travel to/from the competition (mileage or reasonable coach airfare for out of state competitors reimbursed); hotel accommodations for two nights; a meal per diem for two days, and copy costs.

Please encourage all law schools in your state to consider participating and pass along this information to the law school deans and/or Moot Court Boards. Should you have any questions about the competition, please direct those to one of the following:
